4. Treasurer's Report

Report: Great profits! $1500 still to generate by end of year.

Financials:

Revenue: Popcorn day income, hot lunch income

Expenses: Insurance, 50/50 winner, popcorn supplies, hot dog day supplies
Casino account may need to be spent. Bridget will send around a list of eligible expenses we could consider spending money on.

5. Old Business

- Movie Night: April 20. Still have concession items to sell, which will be one at the dance. Suggestion to buy bulk snacks at the start of the year in September.
 - Concession profit $146.42
- Teacher Appreciation: May 9
 - Budget increased to $400 for lunch including sandwiches, veggie tray and drinks
- Dance: May 26
 - DJ hired, theme: Shimmer and Shine

6. New Business

- Casino presentation
Casino advisors asking participants to communicate to AGLC about relocating Camrose casino to South Edmonton, where funds would be allocated to rural charities. The reason for this is the concern about decreased revenues from Camrose (new casino construction, etc). Advisors suggest we lobby because money is being lost.
 - Executive to draft a letter of lobbying to directors at large to approve and provide feedback on.

7. Reports:

(Reminder to email/ give paper reports to secretary after meeting so she can attach to minutes)
