5.0 Old Business

- Parent Supervision
 - No extra supervision is required by parents. The staff have a good system in place at this time.
- 2023-24 Grant; workshop: "School Council Purpose"
 - Apr 3
 - Rachel, Kristen, Megan, Bridget and Nichol attended at the school
 - Informative
 - This presentation mentioned School Council does deal with money; we're learning how and when
 - Presentation is geared for a group
 - Best done in a group setting as we had a good chat
- Literacy night April 16, 2024; committee: Megan, Kirsten Epp, Nikki, Emilie

- Upcoming review of bylaws & policies/procedures. Not bylaws, as SC only has Operating Procedures
 - Need one or two word minded individuals to make this committee

6.0 New business

- Volunteer Tea, May 28, 1:30-2:30
 - Send the invitation to any volunteers you know of in the school
 - Everyone at the meeting confirmed they had received the invite
- Pancake Breakfast, April 30- 4 volunteers

7.0 Principal's Report

-Literacy Week\Literacy Night was a success

Trustees came to read throughout the week\Monty\Cable\Instructional Coaches
Lots of families came engaged

-Mental Health week April 29-May 3.

-PD April 19

Morning was focused on co-regulation strategies. A lot that she addresses is geared for parents. Great for a parent info night.

Afternoon was split between virtual PD and ATA collaboration time.

-No pets on school grounds (parks)

-Superintendents Meeting

Loss of money because of growth in Leduc (over 30K)

-Cellphone Use in Schools

There is an online survey going around for parents, and staff to complete by May 3, 2024

-Modernization

Meeting was deferred
